

FREIER ZUGANG OPEN ACCESS

is a series of events taking place at the "Mediathek für Tanz und Theater des Mime Centrum Berlin/ ITI im Bethanien" and curated by Andrea Keiz in collaboration with „Raum für Raum“, an initiative of artist at Bethanien.

The series of events is using different media formats of the archive in combination with the knowledge of the invited guests in order to offer, open, reload, awake, shift, and change containers of knowledge.

stands for what it means: open access to knowledge for everybody who wants to contribute or hear new stuff. Performing arts will be a focus of the first series. The event will be shaped by the content. New formats can be given a try.

is addressing people who are moved by their interest and enjoy the exchange with others.

FREIER EINTRITT

Upcoming:

7.2. 2012 20h Maria Francesca Scaroni, Andrea Keiz

we ask about the appearance of the concept of the liberated body in different eras. Are there repeating phenomena? Which artist might have given impulses towards performing arts? Keywords like representation, body, sex/ gender, subject / object, provocation and intersubjectivity are guiding us through the research.

6.3.2012 20h Jan Burkhardt and Sandra Wieser (raum für raum) normative bodies in the field of contemporary dance supported by visual material of the archive of the mime centrum we will ask questions about the "normative body". Does the "normative body" exist in the field of contemporary dance, respectively bodies which are not being considered as normative? What are the questions that can emerge from this issue?
